“Trust is a big factor,” Mr. Grende continued. “This newest milestone could not have been achieved without the trust of our referral sources who know we will deliver competitive financing solutions in a timely manner and the confidence of our clients who know we will help them work through challenges and achieve their long-term goals. To our referral partners and our clients, thank you for allowing us the opportunity to serve you. And to our team, thank you for all your hard work and dedication.
