

Season's Greetings from Siena Lending Group!

This year, more than any other, has shown us how important it is to share with those less fortunate. And in the spirit of giving, Siena Lending Group has donated to several food pantries and soup kitchens across the country on behalf of our employees and clients. With this financial support, 167,500 meals will be served to those who would otherwise go hungry.

Photos Courtesy of Blanchet House

We wish you and yours a happy and healthy 2021!